

You're invited...

New Professional Networking Reception

at the Department of Education's National Meeting on Alcohol & Other Drug Abuse Prevention

Outside The Classroom invites you to join us for refreshments, connect with new professionals, and meet veteran practitioners who will share their stories and insights. Whether you are new to the field, or just new to your role, we hope you will stop by to say hello, pick up a new practitioner toolkit, and mingle with your peers!

When

Monday, October 18, 2010

5:00 pm – 6:30 pm

Where

Moon Bay Coastal Cuisine – Wharf Patio

Gaylord National Hotel and Convention Center, National Harbor, Maryland

(Take escalators to lower atrium; Moon Bay is on the right)

Hosted by

Kate DiEmidio, Health Educator, American University

Kimberley Timpf, Director, Prevention Practice Management, Outside The Classroom

About Outside The Classroom

For over a decade, Outside The Classroom has been steadfast in our endeavor to strengthen the field of alcohol prevention by providing institutional leaders and their students with the information and tools they need to develop well-informed, cost-effective strategies for reducing alcohol-related risk and preventing harm. We are dedicated to promoting collaboration among all prevention professionals to make progress on this critical issue.

